Hebrew New Year.

All Israelites of Alexandria gathered in the Synagogue on north Washington street last night to celebrate the Hebrew New Year. A number of others not of the house of Israel were also present and listened to the services and address of Rev. Mr. Reichler, who officiated. Services were held at 10 o'clock this morning and all Hebrews will keep their places of business closed until six o'clock this evening. The Jewish New Year is observed in accordance with the injunction: "And in the seventh month on the first day of the month shall ye have a holy convocation; no servile work shall ye do; a day of blowing the cornet shall it be with you."—Numbers xix, i. The cornet mentioned in the Bible is the ram's horn, or "shofar," and is used in all Jewish synagogues on the New Year. The New Year forms the beginning of a cycle of ten penitential days which conclude with the Day of Atonement. These days are set aside for repentance and prayer. Tradition has it that God, who is conceived by the Jews as a judge, holds court from New Year to the Day of Atonement, taking notes of the commission of sins by individuals and not sealing his judgment or verdict until Atonement Day, when He grants forgiveness for repentance displayed. The moral of the festival is to call attention to the rapid flight of time and to make men deeply conscious of the higher purposes of human existence. New Year's Day and the Day of Atonement are more generally observed by the Jews of this country than any other Hebrew holidays. Thousands who disregard other holidays attend services and abstain from business on these occasions. Rev. Mr. Reichler's discourse last night was from Ps. cxvii, 26—"Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord." He was listened to with close attention.

Port Paragraphs.

The tugboat George W. Pridie, Captain Walter Posey, yesterday evening brought up the three-masted schooner E. Marie Brown, from New York, loaded with phosphate rock for the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company. The vessel is now at W. A. Smoot & Co.'s wharf.

The schooner J. P. Robinson is being loaded with lumber by Smoot & Co. for the lower river.

The schooner Winnie H. Windsor, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., has sailed for Colton's wharf.

The steamer Kent, of the Randall line, has been laid up at Reardon's wharf.

As has been stated in the Gazette, the tug Juno, owned by Mr. Park Agnew, is hauled out on the railway. It is stated that the hull of the vessel is to be rebuilt. The Juno was formerly one of the best known towboats on the river, but about four years ago she was withdrawn from the service and has been lying at the shipyard since that time.

The crews of the Edward E. Berry and Edwin R. Hunt, two of the large schooners lying off Alexandria, have been laid off and the masters of the schooners are preparing for a long period of idleness. The vessels will remain at anchor in the fresh water off this port until a charter is secured for them, in order to avoid the work that infest salt water harbors. As yet there is no sign of the end of the war between the shipowners and the owners of the vessels engaged in the coasting trade over the question of freight rates.

Killed by Train.

A man supposed to be Charles Curry, of Bradford, Pa., aged about thirty-five years, was struck by a train and instantly killed at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at Waterloo, about five miles north of Alexandria. Curry had just left a store behind the tracks of the Washington Southern Railway, at Waterloo, and hurrying, it is believed, to board a passing south-bound freight train, he stepped in front of the passenger train, north-bound. Papers found in his pocket led to his supposed identification. Coroner Ashton summoned a jury and held an inquest. After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict that the man's death was the result of an accident for which he was alone to blame, but attached the provision to the finding that the railroad company should bear the expense of the burial.

Attachment Suit.

By agreement of all concerned, the attachment suit of G. A. Smith, of Philadelphia, against the Alexandria Shoe Company for an alleged debt and for the appointment of a receiver, has been set for a hearing before Judge Barley next Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

Personal.

Mrs. Wm. Scott is quite sick at her home on south Lee street.

Miss Kate Eveleth and Miss Virginia Wheat are visiting in Augusta county.

Miss Elizabeth Slaymaker has returned from a pleasant visit to friends near Annapolis, Md.

Mrs. Theodore Ale is in Philadelphia in attendance upon the golden wedding of her father and mother.

Mrs. Hesselius Smith, who has been quite ill, has entirely recovered and has resumed his duties at the First National Bank.

Mrs. Emma Mingin, of this city, and Mr. William Driscoll, formerly of Glassboro, N. J., but now connected with one of the glass factories here, were married in Philadelphia August 11 last. Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll will make their home in this city.

H. V. Kelley, of Alexandria, is visiting his parents near Edinburg.—[Sentinel.]

Mrs. Peter Westelaken and her son have returned from a trip to Germany.

Mr. Thos. Burroughs, jr., traveling auditor of the Cotton Belt, has been temporarily transferred to the Arkansas division of the road. He and his wife prefer Malden as a residence place, and their numerous friends hope they will locate here permanently. A number of young people who composed the St. Francis fishing party were last week chaperoned by Mrs. Thos. Burroughs, jr., a charming young matron of Alexandria, Va., who thoroughly enjoys outings of this character.—[Malden, Mo., News.]

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Twyman, colored, arrested by Lieutenants Smith and Officer Bettis charged with stealing lead pipe from a residence, was fined $2.50.

Richard Pines, colored, arrested by Officer Allen for gambling, was fined $2.50.

Frank Sims, colored, arrested by Officer Roberts for assault on Harry Huggins, was dismissed.

Simon Lee, colored, arrested by the same officer charged with larceny, was dismissed.

Willis Pettit, arrested by Officers Knight and Beach charged with an assault on Harry Massey with a pistol, was fined $20.

Michael Postogel, arrested by the same officers for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was sent out of the city.

Blaine Craig, colored, arrested by the same officers for gambling, was fined $2.50.

C. C. Lloyd, arrested by the same officers for carrying concealed weapons, forfeited $20 by failing to appear.

Robert Wilkins, colored, arrested by Officers Henderson and Young on suspicion of stealing a watch and locket from Frank Baltimore, was dismissed.

Peacemaker Shot.

Rev. H. C. Conner, colored, of Falls Church, was taken to the Emergency Hospital, in Washington, yesterday noon, with a gunshot wound in the side. At the time it was believed his injury was not serious, but later in the day he grew worse, and a further examination revealed the fact that one kidney had been torn by the shot and the intestines punctured. According to the story told at the hospital, Rev. Conner was having a fair at his church Thursday night. A quarrel arose between Dan Napper and another negro, and in attempting to shoot his antagonist Napper shot the preacher, who was acting as peacemaker. Napper, it is said, has been arrested. Conner died today.

Relief Truck Company.

A well-attended meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was held last night, with President Park Agnew presiding. It being the night for the appearance of the members in dress uniform for inspection, twenty-one members were reported as uniformed and continued on the active list. A few of the older members were transferred to the honorary roll. The names of the remaining active members who had no uniforms were erased from the rolls. Considerable routine business was transacted.

The Arrest of Gunners.

The Fairfax authorities are indignant at the impression that has been made by the recent arrest of gunners from this city. They allege that the parties taken in custody were trespassing upon lands owned by Constable Mordecai Hurst and not upon navigable streams, as has been alleged. The neighborhood of the marsh which attracts gunners is not, it is claimed, public but private property, acquired by Mr. Hurst, and that hunters who invade the premises are guilty of trespass.

Hand Cut Off.

Bronaugh Trice, a fireman on the Southern Railway, met with a serious accident near Marshall yesterday. He was engaged under the engine when it started to move. Mr. Trice's left hand was caught by the machinery and the member cut off, only the thumb remaining on the hand. The injured man was taken to Manassas and at 3 o'clock in the morning removed to this city and placed in the Alexandria Hospital where his hand was amputated by the company's surgeon.

The Market.

The display of country produce in market this morning was not as profuse as that of previous Saturdays, although the supply seemed to be equal to the demand. Prices in the main were unchanged. There was an attempt, however, to bull the egg market, and some country people were holding them at 25c per dozen. The truckers are still complaining of the lack of rain. The fish benches contained several salt water species. The tailors were especially fine.

School Days Drawing Near.

The vacation time of public school children is nearly at an end. The issuing of permits will be commenced on Tuesday and continued throughout the week and on the following Monday the schools will all be opened for studies.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such is the condition of an old soldier, by name of J. J. Hayes, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies, "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The gas lamp at the corner of Lee and Franklin streets burned all day yesterday but the city pays the bill and the policeman.

Mrs. Annie McMinimin was among the killed in the accident to the Seaboard Air Line passenger train on Thursday night. The deceased was a sister of Mr. Charles Smithers, who lives on south Royal street.

The pocketbook found on an electric car by Mr. M. B. Harlow a few days ago and turned over to the railway officials was claimed by its owner, a soldier, stationed at Fort Hunt, below this city, who, in returning his thanks to Mr. Harlow, said the money in the pocketbook, $49, was the last cent he had.

Simon Lee, colored, was found last night on the street by Officer Roberts in a helpless condition. It was later discovered that the man had been paralyzed. He was taken to the station house and today removed to his home.

Clam Chowder at Base's, 114 north Fairfax street, tonight. String music. All invited.

The Seventieth at Manassas.

The Manassas correspondent of the Richmond Times-Dispatch writes:

Just before the engagement was concluded I crossed over to the Blue lines and found the Seventieth Virginia, as usual, the advance of the third division. General Price has a high opinion of Colonel George Wayne Anderson, commanding the Seventieth Virginia Regiment, and in the entire four days of fighting has given him command of the advance. It is a high compliment and richly deserved. I found the Virginians in fine spirits and in excellent physical condition. As I joined the regiment they advanced through a cornfield and put a Brown regiment entirely out of the business. The umpire, in making the decision, took occasion to compliment the regiment and to say that they had done the best work for the Blue army.

Military Dinner.

General Corbin gave a formal dinner at his camp near Manassas last night to members of his staff, foreign attaches and a few invited guests. There were present Lieut.-Gov. Jos. E. Willard, the governors of Massachusetts, Georgia, West Virginia and the Lieut.-Gov. of Vermont. The guest of honor was Secretary of the Navy Morton.

General Corbin first toasted the President, after which the Secretary of the Navy responded to the toast, "Our Navy," in which he outlined a future plan for the increase of the war ships. He said that his idea of a navy could be summed up in three words: instruction, instruction and instruction.

Governor Willard responded to the toast "Virginia." He said that Virginia has always, since the first toast of Independence in 1776, more than done her part for the welfare of the country, and that no State in the Union would rally to the support of the flag quicker than the Old Dominion. Governor Bates spoke happily, but it remained for a governor of Georgia to allude in the harshest terms to the war with Spain, when the Spanish attaché, Colonel Monteverdi, was seated at the next table. Ex-Senator Manderson, of Nebraska paid a tribute to Gen. Corbin and to Mrs. Corbin. Gen. Corbin responded in a speech of thanks.

Mrs. Corbin and Mrs. Grant, Miss Patten and Mrs. Vanderbilt were guests at General Corbin's table.

Senator Martin in Leesburg.

Senator Thomas S. Martin was the guest of Judge Richard H. Tebbis on Wednesday and Thursday and attended county races at the fair grounds, where he met a large number of our citizens. He was serenaded on Wednesday night by the Taylorsville brass band and acknowledged the compliment in a most delightful speech. After an informal reception from eight to ten o'clock the Senator looked in for a while on the german at the Opera House, expressing himself as charmed by the grace and beauty witnessed there. He was much pleased by the cordial greeting he received from our people and seemed to thoroughly enjoy his little visit.—[Enterprise.]

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
